Despite facing challenges and strained relationships, Norman enlisted and rose through the ranks. He fought in Gallipoli, where he exhibited bravery and leadership. However, he tragically lost his life at the Battle of Fromelles. The aftermath of the battle caused deep grief and conflict within Norman's family, particularly affecting his sister Violet. Nevertheless, his heroism and leadership will never be forgotten. It is a moving picture of the grief that over 60,000 families experienced as a result of the deaths of their loved ones during WW1.
